

The Welsh Church and the Welsh Society of Sydney present

Y Gymanfa Ganu 2009

This is an important Gymanfa for the Welsh Community in that it is at this Gymanfa that the sign for the Church, “Yr Eglwys Gymreig,” (The Welsh Church) will be dedicated. It behoves us all to attend this event in the history of the Welsh Church in Sydney.

The Gymanfa (the Singing Festival) will take place on the last Sunday of this month, June 28th at 2.30 pm in the Welsh Church of Sydney, the lovely sandstone building that is St Peters Presbyterian Church at the top of Blues Point Road, North Sydney.

A stirring selection of the great hymns of Wales will include

Groeswen	Blaenwern	Calon lân	Rachie
Diadem	Joanna	Cwm Rhondda	Mae hen wlad and Crimond

Under the direction of Dr Sion Llwyd, the guest choir, Cantorion Sydney Male Voice
Choir, with the guest soloist

Angela Edwards

will perform

Nant y mynydd	Sanctus	Ave Maria	Men of Harlech	Cartref
---------------	---------	-----------	----------------	---------

ADMISSION IS FREE

However you will have an opportunity to make a donation. Afternoon tea, which will include Welsh cakes, will follow the Gymanfa.